FOREWORD

This, the sixth edition of the Calvacade, is intended to serve as an accurate record of the classes and activities of the year 1951-1952. May it bring back fond memories to all who browse between its covers.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Wilson, whose patience, understanding, and guidance has helped us to find ourselves, and who has helped to turn our sometimes stubborn and sometimes bewildered minds in the right direction, we gratefully dedicate this sixth volume of the Calvacade.

Class Motto: "Not merely to exist but to amount to something in life."

DID YOU KNOW

Six of the football champs were from the 51-52 Senior Class.

Jim doesn't like the secret code of dashes—but he sure likes Dot.

William doesn't roll his hair every night—it's natural.

It isn't the principle of the thing Grant is interested in—it's his daughter.

Betty Faye thinks Drexel is more interesting than Virginia—wonder why?

Jane Loves those letters from Fort Bragg—or maybe it's the writer.

Reba and Martha always want a milkshake after church.

Esther's mind often drifts out to sea—or see.

Willie knows all the bumps between Enon Church and a certain house—eh, Rachel?

Charlie has two favorites—girls—and girls!

Marlene studies during the day; walks the floor with Baby Terry at night.

Tressie is crazy over Fords—and making hamburgers.

Betty Sue can really chauffeur that Buick.

Norma isn't interested in State College—it's the boy therein.

Gladys' favorite car is a jeep—of course with attachments—hum! hum!

Jo Ann and Carolyn do talk sometimes—if the subject is masculine.

Eleanor is interested in B's—Baskebtall and Boys.

Frances has a classical mind, it has changed from Robert to Shakespeare.

Kenneth has another interest besides Geography—so we are told.

Leatrice loves her diamond—must be getting tired of single life.

Sue loves parties—or it might be "the party."

Lewis isn't really interested in basketball—it's the player—Beatrice.

Luther and Stuart have a magnetic power about them—and the girls just have to follow.

Nolan would never pester anyone—especially teachers.

Bobby is undecided now—so what are girls gonna do?

Harper's main interest isn't really cars—it's I—Card.

Payday isn't Leo's main reason for driving that bus—Huh, Janet?

June is interested in the higher things—six feet and over.

Maxine loves a football game—she also likes something about it besides the game.

Hazel would rather exercise those lungs by cheerleading, than in Chemistry.

When Franklin falls for a girl, Rex is always there to shout Timmm-berrr!

Phyllis decided long ago that she preferred heavy artillery—Cannons!

Julia likes to sell sweets—as well as meet them.

Junior is always happy—Well, why shouldn't he be—he has a clear conscience.

Shirley's main interest isn't posters—he's in Germany.

Pauline's interest is singing—if she is singing to ————??

CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of 1952, had our beginning 12 years ago as 88 wide-eyed, scrubbed youngsters, never realizing that the time would come when we would be publishing an annual as a last tribution and farewell to the school we have all learned to love.

In that first year of 1940 we were taught by Mrs. Odes Huffman and Miss Spencer. To these two people who began our education and to all of the other teachers who have guided us with wisdom and patience, we wish to extend our sincere gratitude for their untiring efforts.

In the eighth grade our number had diminished to 57, twenty-seven of this number were boys and thirty were girls.

To us the eighth grade was of the greatest importance for with what we gained from that class we would have to make our beginning in high school. Thus, for what success we have achieved during our high school days we owe in great part to Miss Frances Bradshaw and Mr. Entzi, who so well prepared us for this step.

The eighth grade graduation exercise was filled with meaning and purpose to those of us who sat in the place of prominence. We were filled with pride at our new position of importance. That exercise instilled within us an incentive to work, to strive, to reach, and then to start work all over again.

Since our eighth grade days Tressie May, Reba West, Stuart Cozart, Nolan Greene, Shirley Jaynes, Esther Grady, Grant Queen, and Louis Powell have been added to our class. The number we have lost is so great we cannot mention all of them. Among those are Dorothy Deal, Coleen Chapman, Alma Jean Rogers, Joe Rector, Clell Mull, Ken Deal, and Joe Saunders.

Since 1948, when our high school days began, the whole class has worked as a unit, taking an active part in all activities. We are especially proud of our record in the field of athletics. Those receiving sweaters for participating in all sports four years are Grant Queen, Beatrice Childers, and Leatrice Childers.

While Juniors we were recognized as such by two main events: the Junior Play and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

This final year has certainly been packed full of study and excitement, for us Seniors. The boys on the football, basketball, and baseball teams are: Luther Rhoney, Grant Queen, Rex Baker, and Willie Woodie. On the football team and baseball team are: Stuart Cozart and Bobby Ramsey. On basketball is Franklin Hubbard, and Kenneth Smith. On the girls basketball is Leatrice Childers, Beatrice Childers, Norma Lowdermilk, Eleanor Franklin, and Betty Page.

The class had a weiner roast at Huffman Bridge. Everyone enjoyed it very much We are looking forward to the Annual Junior-Senior Banquet. Our trip to Washington and the Senior Play, "Peck Bad Boy."

One of the most outstanding events that has taken place this year is the beginning of a Student Council. Luther Rhoney was elected president.

CLASS PROPHECY

——RADIO AND T. V.——

——Bobby Ramsey, rising young heavyweight meets William Helms, Marine heavyweight, in a 10 round boxing bout, Wednesday night over WMNC and WMNC-TV at 10 o'clock. Nolan Green will do the blow by blow with Leo Bollinger handling the between rounds commentary.

——A musical film, "ALL'S LOST IN LOVE," will be given tonight for one hour on WBRM starting at eight o'clock. Janet Burns will conduct the orchestra.

——Hazel Powell, that popular song thrush, has just signed a five-year contract to sing on the ARTHUR GODFREY SHOW. She will blend her voice with Tony Martin's.

——Phyllis Childers (Cannon) has just returned from a singing tour in Europe. During her spare time she raises—you guessed it—little cannons.

——THEATRE——

——June Cope will star in the great Shakespearean play, "Hamlet," which opens on Broadway next week.

——Harper Harris, the most famous comedian of today, gave a marvelous performance at the Powell Theatre in Charlotte last night. Harris is a close friend of Louis Powell, owner of the "Powell Theatre" chain, one of the largest chains of theatres in the U. S.

——POLITICS——

——The popular North Carolina Representative, Stuart Cozort, has succeeded Representative Doughton as chairman of the "Ways and Means" committee.

——SOCIETY NEWS——

——Mrs. Rachel Baird Woodie, wife of Aviator Willie Woodie, entertained the W. S. A. at her home Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. Those attending were: Mrs. Norma Lowdermilk Jackson, wife of the famous civil engineer, Jerry Jackson; Mrs. Dorothy McNeely Aikens, Supervisor of Nurses at Grace Hospital and wife of the eminent Dr. Jim Aikens of Morganton; Mrs. Jo Ann Tilley Farris, wife of the handsome actor, Charles Farris of Morganton; and Mrs. Eleanor Franklin Carswell, wife of Naval Commander Joe Carswell, formerly of Morganton.

——Miss Frances Hipps, certified public accountant in Washington, D. C., now home on vacation, is visiting her parents in Drexel.

——Miss Julia Bumgarner, missionary, is home on vacation after four years of hard, steady work in Africa.

——SPORTS——

——Grant Queen of Drexel, former football coach at U. N. C., leaves for Kentucky to take over his new duties as football coach for the Kentuckian Cats.

——Drexel's baseball team seems to be on the beam once again this year, thanks to the skillful coaching of Luther Rhoney.

——ALONG THE LINE——

——Beatrice Childers and Leatrice Childers (Putnam), identical twins, have identical jobs, but in different parts of the country. They're both excellent Physical Ed. Directors.

——Miss Betty Sue McGalliard and Miss Janie Page received their M. A. Degrees from Duke University last week.

——Mrs. Marlene Smith, secretary at the Drexel Furniture Company, says that her hardest job is raising little Smiths.

——Junior Glazebrooks, successful Burke farmer, walked off with four first prizes at the Drexel Community Fair yesterday. And is he gloating!

——Miss Maxine Reece left for High Point last week to take over her new job as Physical Ed. Director at the Recreation Center there.

——Anyone interested in making a parachute jump had better first see Kenneth Smith for advice. He made a beautiful one yesterday. There was only one flaw in his landing . . . . he broke his arm. .

——Interested in "Beauty Contests"? The Traveler's Insurance Company in Atlanta, Georgia, sponsored Miss Reba West as their candidate for "The Most Beautiful Secretary" . . . . and won!

——The Memorial Hospital in Charlotte has on its staff three of the best nurses in North Carolina. They are: Miss Carolyn Weir, Miss Tressie May, and Miss Martha Jo Berry, all from Drexel.

——Miss Esther Grady, Society Editor for the News Herald in Morganton, N. C., has just returned from a vacation in Florida. And, believe it or not, she says she is glad to be back.

——Franklin Hubbard is now a state patrolman in Raleigh. Some one said he made a nice, tall, and cool one. I bet he did.

——Betty Page of Drexel and the W. A. F. made the headlines yesterday when she was promoted to Lieutenant of the W. A. F., the highest rank ever held by a servicewoman.

——The "Trim Beauty Shoppe" in Charlotte opens under new supervision next week. Miss Gladys Howard and Miss Sue Shuffler are the new owners and managers.

——General Omar Bradley's new secretary is Shirley Jaynes, formerly of Drexel, who seems to be an authority on foreign affairs.

——Rex Baker, professor of music at Mars Hill College in Asheville, has just accepted the position as Director of the Music Department there.

——Miss Pauline Bennette returns next week to her job as Director of The Business Department at Mary Washington College in Virginia.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of '52 being of sound mind and body (we hope) and realizing that our valuable possessions might create bitter contention among our aspiring heirs have had the foresight to draw up our Last Will and Testament before our final breath.

We leave our sincerest gratitude to Mr. Hallyburton for what he has meant to us. To the faculty we leave our thanks for the helpfulness and understanding patience to us during these happy but difficult years.

To the School Board we leave our appreciation for the interest that they have in us.

To the Senior Class of '53 we leave our dignity and ability to get along with each other.

In addition there are numerous individual bequeaths: They are as follows:

Janet Burns wills her liking for chewing gum to Myrna Trumble.

Jim Aikens wills his love for Mrs. Stover's French Class to Wilburn Griffin.

Nolan Greene leaves his night shirt he made in Home Ec. to Bill Mull.

Hazel Powell bequeaths her ability to sing to Cynthia Clark (but not her voice).

Leatrice Childers wills her ability to twirl her baton to Margaret Powell.

Rex Baker leaves his driver's license to Harold Baker and Lyvon Deal.

Grant and Willie Woodie endow their talent to catch their women upon Preston Baker.

Sue Shuffler wills her most delightful giggling to Jo Ann Deal.

Marlene Smith and Phyllis Cannon leave their marriage licenses to any girl in the Junior Class.

Louis Powell wills his hobby to Hal Smith. (loafing)

Betty Sue McGalliard wills her ability to make (good) sodas to Gaynell Buff.

Charlie Farris leaves his curly hair to Clyde Baird and Max Baker.

Eleanor Franklin commits her position as a guard to Gwendolyn Griffin.

Frances Hipps wills her love for bookkeeping to Georgia Bumgatner.

Beatrice Childers leaves her love for playing basketball to Gertrude Miller.

Kenneth Smith wills his engaging smile to Gilbert Mull.

Rachel Baird and Reba West leave their job, running the mimeograph machine to Eva Sitton.

Martha Joe Berry leaves her quiet ways to Perry Mull and Maxine Swink.

Carolyn Weir leaves Elizabeth Ann Hallyburton her Pepsodent smile.

Luther Rhoney leaves his ability to "Hang in there," to Jim Wright.

Julia Bumgarner leaves her vitamin pills to Winona Childers.

Betty Page leaves her jolly ways to Sandra Baker.

Janie Page and Esther Grady leave their way of talking about the boys to Shirley Grady.

Franklin Hubbard leaves his ability to get around on the basketball court to Ted Settlemyre.

Jo Ann Tilley and Norma Lowdermilk leave their dimples to Betty Keller and to Gene Page.

William Helms leaves his good looks to Shirley Mauldin.

Shirley Jaynes leaves her glass cleaners to Thomas Poteat.

Dorothy McNeely leaves her ability to study to Nadine Sigmon.

Gladys Howard leaves her stationery and pen to Norma Watts. (This doesn't include the stamps.)

Stuart Cozort gives to Marshall Digh his ability to do the "Paul Jones."

Harper Harris bequeaths his privilege of driving his car to school to Walter Butler.

Maxine Reece Wills her bobby pins and peroxide to Leta Aikens and Betty Jane Stamey.

Junior Glazebrooks leaves his beautiful blushing ways to Pat Thompson and Mozelle Reece.

Tressie May wills her love for Chemistry to Ruby Denton.

June Cope after going over her few possessions has decided she had better keep them.

Pauline Bennett leaves to Mary Alice Rogers her comb and lipstick.

Bobby Ramsey wills just what he leaves.
